Construction of the $188 million project began in March and is estimated to be complete by 2019.

"The Finton-Russell Bridge Replacement Project is a multiyear, multi-phase project that will include the design and construction of a new bridge over the Ohio River," said Jim Blach, director of engineering and construction at the District. "The project is expected to begin in 2015 and be completed in 2019."